

Stack Moves Saw a 399% Increase Organic Traffic within 3 Months

Stack Moves, a retail business specializing in moving box rentals, partnered with us to enhance their online visibility upon launching their new website on February 19th, 2024. As an active recurring SEO client for three months, we created and optimized 51 location-specific pages. This strategic initiative significantly increased organic search traffic and improved Stack Moves' visibility in targeted regions, leading to a noticeable uptick in inquiries and rental bookings. The project not only solidified Stack Moves' position in the competitive retail market but also laid the groundwork for continued SEO efforts to expand their reach further and boost customer engagement. This case study underscores the impact of tailored SEO strategies in driving business growth and enhancing online presence in the retail sector.

“Within three months, Stack Moves experienced a 399% increase in organic traffic and a 554% rise in impressions through our comprehensive SEO strategy, which included optimizing 51 location-specific pages and targeted SEO efforts.”
